The Taste of Grace Secretariat is committed to building a larger base of churches involved in the Via de Cristo ministry in south suburbs of Chicago, and team selection is crucial in support of this goal. The cost of the weekend is $150.00 payable during team meetings.

1. Approximately one third (1/3) of the team should be experienced, having served four or more previous weekends.
2. Approximately one third (1/3) should be a first time team member in order to build experience.
3. The remaining third to be determined by Rector/a.
4. No more than six (6) team members should be from the Rector/a's home church.
5. Team members should come from the whole geographic area with as many churches represented as realistically possible.
6. Team members are encouraged to be in a group reunion, actively involved in their church, and supporting Via de Cristo activities.
